1. Terms of Service & Conditions

1.1 Acceptance of Terms

By creating an account, embedding widget scripts, or utilizing FERNBLAKE LIMITED AI platform services, you agree to be legally bound by these Terms of Service. If you do not agree, you must immediately cease all platform usage.

1.2 Platform Description & RAG Workflow

FERNBLAKE LIMITED provides automated AI-powered support agent infrastructure. Our platform processes uploaded business documentation (PDF, DOCX, TXT, CSV) to construct vector embeddings for Retrieval-Augmented Generation (RAG). AI agents answer end-user queries strictly based on provided context.

1.3 Token Allocation & Monetization

- High-Volume Token Deposits: Flexible enterprise token top-up packages starting at €1.00 EUR per 1,000 AI tokens (€1,000 per 1M tokens).
- Multi-Currency Billing: All deposits are billed with official VAT invoices in EUR (€), USD ($), or GBP (£).
- Token Longevity: Purchased token top-up balances do not expire while account is active.

1.4 Knowledge Base Ownership & Anti-Hallucination

Customers retain 100% intellectual property ownership of all uploaded documentation. FERNBLAKE LIMITED AI agents operate under a strict anti-hallucination policy: when information is missing from the knowledge base, agents will direct users to human support.

2. Privacy Policy & Data Security

2.1 Data Collection Scope

FERNBLAKE LIMITED collects necessary account metadata (name, email, encrypted passwords), uploaded training documents, and chat interaction logs required for providing AI agent responses.

■ ZERO PUBLIC MODEL TRAINING GUARANTEE:

Your uploaded documentation and customer chat interaction logs are NEVER shared, sold, or used to train public foundation models (OpenAI, DeepSeek, Anthropic). Your knowledge base data is strictly isolated within your private account workspace.

2.2 GDPR Compliance & Data Rights

In accordance with UK-GDPR and European Union GDPR standards, users retain the right to access, export, or permanently erase their personal data and uploaded vector datasets at any time by contacting support@fernblake.com.

3. Cookie & Local Storage Policy

3.1 Purpose of Browser Storage

FERNBLAKE LIMITED uses essential session cookies for user authentication and HTML5 Local Storage (`zeltronix_session_*`) within client chat widgets. This ensures continuous conversation state when visitors navigate across website pages.

4. Refund & Cancellation Policy

4.1 14-Day Guarantee

Token deposits are backed by a 14-day money-back guarantee provided that less than 10% of the purchased token quota has been consumed. Contact billing@fernblake.com for refund requests.
